

ThE FCC and COngress did such a wonderful job of screwing up satellite television and now they are attacking XM radio. Why don't they leave a good thing alone?